Publisher's Statement

This article was made openly accessible by a faculty member at St. Francis Xavier University.

Note for citations: When the exact version of the article is available through a journal & StFX Scholar, it will say “published version” in the ‘Version’ section above.

In this case, always cite the published version so the author(s) will receive recognition through services that track citation counts, e.g. Web of Science or Scopus. If you need to cite the page number of the version received from StFX Scholar because you cannot access the published version, then cite the StFX Scholar version in addition to the publisher version using the permanent URL found on the publisher page.
